

I enjoy, and gladly pay for, the quality of XM satellite radio. I believe any attempt to limit the programming available to XM listeners, such as that by the NAB in petition 04-160, is misguided and is nothing but an attempt to stifle competition. This should not be allowed to happen.
Thank-you for your attention to this matter. ALLEN COOK